stated that Emil Bodnăraș, Minister of National Defense, had recently had some sort of disagreement with members of a Soviet military mission that had arrived some weeks previously to confer at length with officials of the Rumanian General Staff. The officer did not know the nature of the disagreement.

2. This officer likewise stated that regional maps of Yugoslavia are presently under study at the Rumanian General Staff. He characterized his estimate of the present situation with the remark, "the longer war is delayed, the more certain it is to occur".
